Congressman Brady Kicks Off “Takin’ it to the Streets Tour” Saturday

PHILADELPHIA – Congressman Bob Brady will kick off his “Takin’ it to the Streets” tour of Philadelphia Saturday, March 24 at noon from Hope Plaza on North 22nd Street and West Lehigh Avenue.

A caravan of supporters will make stops along the way to energize people across the city. The last leg of the tour will begin at the 3300 block of South 20th Street around 3:00 p.m., and hit neighborhoods throughout South Philadelphia including a stop at Pat’s and Geno’s for a quick cheese steak....wit.

“I am running for Mayor, and takin’ my campaign to the streets where violence is at a crisis level, and our schools are in a chaotic state,” said Brady about his Saturday afternoon campaigning.

“On Saturday I will barnstorm the City and touch the people who support my bid for Mayor, and every week until the election I will continue to fight for things that matter to them.”
